

The Aspire to Train Network

Slough Aspire is excited to launch the Aspire to Train Network, an exclusive network of training providers from Berkshire and surrounding areas. In partnership with SEGRO and Slough Trading Estate, the network will bring together the best of the region's training providers with employers on the Trading Estate looking to upskill their workforce.

Membership of the network grants:

- Promotion of your training offering, discounts or new programmes direct to the 400 tenants of Slough Trading Estate
- Your Company logo and 25-word description of your company with imbedded link to your website on Aspire to Train page of the Slough Aspire website
- 20% discount on hire of Aspire Centre for training courses
- Exclusive invitations to attend quarterly networking and development events

Secure your membership of the Aspire to Train Network today for an introductory price of just £120 for your first year of membership (normal annual cost £240).
